THE GARBAGE MIRACLE

Isaiah 61:1

Florida has many beautiful things about it — great beaches, great theme parks, great weather, but to be perfectly honest, Florida is not one of the most exciting states to drive across. We're talking about terminal flatness here.

There's nothing wrong with the South Florida landscape that a nice mountain, or even a hill, wouldn't liven things up a bit. Well, in West Palm Beach there is one. A hill, that is. It actually rises to the breathtaking height of 55 feet above sea level. I know that people who live in that area love to go hiking on and around this beautiful hill. It's wonderfully landscaped . . . there's some water there . . . some biking, hiking, jogging trails . . . recreational areas.

Now anyone who knows the topography of South Florida would wisely ask, "Where did this hill come from?" And the answer is: from Garbage! Yep! This lovely spot used to be an ugly, old landfill.

But someone had the brilliant idea of making something useful, something even beautiful of what had just been a lot of garbage.

Well, I want to have A WORD WITH YOU this month about

The GARBAGE MIRACLE.

It's amazing how they, out of garbage, made something they could have never had otherwise. Actually, that's the kind of miracle God loves to do with some of the foulest experiences of our lives. In our word for this week from the Word of God in Isaiah 61:1 and following, we read this description of Jesus. "The Lord has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives, and release from darkness for the prisoners . . . to comfort all who mourn, and provide for those who grieve in Zion."

Now, Jesus comes to do something with the things in our life that, well, we would see only as trash — a broken heart, a physical or emotional prison, a season of darkness, things that make us mourn and grieve, but listen to the amazing beauty Jesus can create from this ugly garbage.

God says He will "bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair. They will be (now, remember, 'they' here are the broken, damaged, hurting people) ... THEY will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the Lord, for the display of His splendor." Out of life's garbage, something glorious unto the Lord will be done!

SPECIAL NOTES

Office Closed 9/2 Labor Day
Home Visitor Cut off date 9/16

You may be looking at your pain and seeing only a mountain of stinking, useless trash, but Jesus is looking at it like some engineers and landscapers must have looked at that landfill in Florida — seeing some beautiful things God can make from that brokenness and hurt, things you could never have on the landscape of your life if it weren't for the garbage transformed through Jesus' design.

Your Savior wants to take the pain that could make you a bitter person and use it to make you a compassionate person, because you know what hurt or slavery is like, you know how it feels . . . and you have the credentials and the sensitivity to be one of God's wounded healers. Jesus uses these hard things that could make you move farther from Him to draw you deeper into His love and compassion than you ever thought possible.

There's an intimacy and power with God experienced by the hurting people that the "whole" people might never touch. Through his almost unbearable suffering, Job said this to God, "My ears had heard of You, but now my eyes have seen You" (Job 42:5).

Jesus can use the pain to deeply bond you, not only to Himself, but to other people — if you'll reach out instead of in. Some of life's closest relationships are forged in the furnace of suffering. And your Lord can use the things you have hated in your life to bring wholeness for another. Through your witness to God's loving-kindness and faithfulness, they might consider your Savior, because they heard about Jesus from you, someone who knows what it means to really need the Savior.

Beauty from ashes . . . praise from despair . . . something very special from something very ugly.

If you will let Jesus be the Lord of your life's pile of garbage, He can make from your life a mountain from which many will be able to see and enjoy Him.

For a heart after Adonai (Hebrew meaning "The LORD"),

Pastor Nathan Wheeler

Dyer Park in West Palm Beach, Florida

A 560-acre regional park that was once a landfill called "The Hill". Visitors can walk, bike, or explore the green space, which is unusual for South Florida's flat landscape. The park also has a large wetland habitat where visitors may see alligators, deer, otters, bobcats, and birds. The Dyer landfill reclamation project began in 1988 when Palm Beach County closed the landfill to waste management.

OBPC'S HABITAT HOME IN LEGACY WOODS

On July 28 we celebrated reaching our $80,000 goal to sponsor a home in Habitat's big forthcoming project.

With a group photo around our "hammer thermometer" and cake and ice cream in the Fellowship Hall we thanked everyone who had contributed to and prayed for our latest outreach project.

Habitat is still waiting on the County Development Board for one last approval, and then they will begin the "infrastructure" phase – cutting a street, laying electric, water, sewer, etc. When this is completed, they will begin the homes and duplexes. OBPC is still to be the sponsor of the first home.

Stay tuned for updates and continue to pray for all those in need of decent housing and a helping hand. Amen.

Prayers for Our Community and World

We pray for peace among nations.

We have a Church Prayer Chain

Please call Joyce Fisher (570-772-6988) if you have a prayer request to lift up by our Prayer Chain.

On July 20 a group of 15 gathered for a time of interactive prayer at the Me, Myself & God Prayer Event. Participants were given six different stations and ways to meet God in prayer.

Station one, OBPC Church & Family, invited them to take time to reflect on the church we call home and the people we call family. After taking time to do that and read the scripture provided, each person wrote down people, moments, or things on a strip of paper that they prayed for at OBPC. Then they placed the colored papers into the cross provided. Finally, they took a moment to pray about the things they listed and give them to God.

Station two, Confessions, asked the participants to think about concerns, regrets, or sins, sum it up into one word, write the word in the sand provided, and reflect on it for a moment. They repeated as many times as needed. Once they completed this task, they were instructed to use a sugar scrub at the sink that acted as the grains of sand or sin mixing with God's grace. Upon rinsing the scrub off, they were left only with renewed skin that reminds us of the renewal we have in God's love and forgiveness.

Station three, Reflection, told everyone to take time looking at themselves in a mirror, truly seeing themselves as God the Father does.

They were then given a small mirror to write one word on that tells what God loves most about them. Then they were told to take the mirror with them as a reminder.

Station four, Praise, was a reflective and meditative room filled with candles. Each person was ask to remember people, events, or things from their pasts that have been gifts from God that lit their spiritual paths. After they had spent time thinking, praying, and reading the scripture, they lit a candle in praise for the moments and people who have been the light of Christ in their lives.

Station five, Global Prayer, asked the individual to think outside of their home area and into the world around them. To mission partners around the world or places in the world that need God's presence. They were given a small globe keychain to hold as they prayed the finger prayer with each finger representing something different: People who are ill, people who need to experience God's love, people in power, people who lead, and people far away.

Station six, Burdens, invited the participants to take a brick provided, carry it through the labyrinth, and talk to God about the burdens they carried in life. Once they returned from the labyrinth they were told to take one of the small stones provided and a paint pen to write a word or phrase that God communicated to them during their walk.

At the end of the event everyone gathered together in the narthex to hold hands and pray around the circle about anything that was on their hearts. Overall, this was a very powerful and moving time together with God.

Save the Date: Saturday, October 26, 2024 5:00-7:00 pm

We hope you will join us for our Annual Fall Festival as we welcome in the members of our community for a fun evening of games, activities, trunk-or-treating, and food. To make this wonderful event happen, we will need everyone to help! If you would like to help, please fill out the insert in the Sunday bulletin or contact Amanda Wilson-Stovall at 386-214-7696. We will also be collecting candy to hand out to the children, so please help by donating candy. A drop-off container can be found in the narthex at the beginning of September.

This year's festivities will include

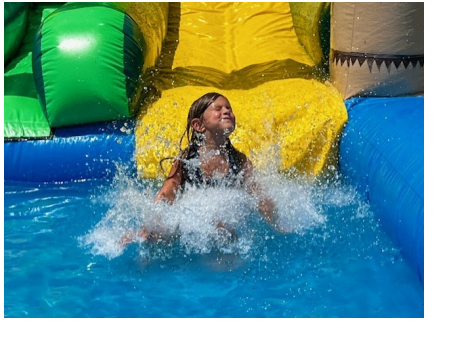

- Inflatable bounce house, slide, obstacle course, and inflatable basketball game
- Balloon animals
- Carnival Games
- Trunk-or-Treating
- Hot-dogs, chips, and lemonade

We hope you will join us in this outstanding community event.

Our Back-to-School Party on August 10 was a blast !

Food, fun games, and lots of WATER!

An amazing way to say goodbye to summer vacation and hello to the new school year.

NEW EMERGENCY APP AVAILABLE

September is often an active part of hurricane season.

So it's important to keep your disaster plan up to date if you live in a hurricane prone area. Being familiar with how to obtain local information should be paramount.

Volusia County Emergency Management has released a new app that offers real-time updates during hurricanes and other emergencies. Its features include weather conditions, sandbag information, shelter locations, and evacuation alerts. Search for "Volusia Emergency Management" on the App Store or Google Play. You can also locate the app at volusia.org. The former app will no longer be updated.

For assistance, contact any Deacon or the church office (386) 441-0300.

Greetings dear women of OBPC. We are getting ready to launch our new Bible Study beginning this Fall. We will be studying a 7 week video-based series by Jennifer Rothschild called Psalm 23- The Shepherd is with me. I will be taking sign-ups after church this September.

Who? All women are invited to participate in this amazing study.
Please also feel free to invite friends or women in your neighborhood.

When? OCTOBER 2 Wednesday Mornings 10:00-11:30 a.m.

Where? Room 12

Again all women are welcome and we hope you will join us for our first

We will have an Autumn theme; a delicious brunch, raffle prizes, wonderful fellowship, and an inspiring video by Luci Swindoll: Becoming An Oak of Righteousness

Please join us on October 5 10:00-11:30 in Room 12.

If you have any questions please contact : Mary Kay Wagner 330-206-4344

KEEPING KIDS SAFE TRAINING

Sunday, September 15, 2024

Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.” Matthew 19:14

In an effort to assure the continued safety of OBPC children and youth while at church functions, all adults working in the children’s ministry or family ministry events are required to attend Keeping Kids Safe training and to have a clear background check. If you have received this training in the past, but it was longer than five years ago, please consider taking this course as a refresher.

If you would like to be certified to work with our youngsters, you are invited to attend the training session planned after church from 12:00 pm to 2:00 pm on Sunday, September 15, 2024 in room 12. Lunch will be provided.

If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to Lisa Benitez at lisa@presbyteriancounseling.com.

Please RSVP to the church office before Friday 9/6 To reserve your space.

A THANKFUL RESPONSE

Every Fall we reflect on God's blessings and consider how we will respond to God's goodness. Even in the worst of times, we are blessed. James 1:17 reminds us "Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows." Those who know this truth count their blessings and make A THANKFUL RESPONSE sharing out of what they have received.

This congregation has a legacy of generosity dating back to its beginning under Rev. Haddad and Miriam. Not only have members and friends supported the congregation's needs, but Ormond Beach Presbyterian has always been generous in giving to missions beyond itself. Its support of local missions and Presbyterian mission causes has been exemplary.

This fall will be no different from other years. You will be asked to give for the future of this congregation and to make sure that the message and ministries of our Lord Jesus happen here and around the world.

For if the willingness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what one does not have. (II Corinthians 8:12)

The Property Committee gives special thanks to our Steward, Ronnie Ricks for his help with sprucing up the Children Sunday School play yard.

And another
BIG THANK YOU!

to Corrin S for her behind the scene's help with ordering and delivery of material. Thank you so much for your time and talents with this project!

Music Notes—September 2024

“We believe that the holy act of singing together shapes faith, heals brokenness, transforms lives, and renews peace.

-The guiding stance of The Center for Congregational Song of the Hymn Society in the United States and Canada.

Singing is a grace-filled activity.

It is breath based,

it is a gift of the Spirit,

an act of trust,

a work of love.

Inhale the grace of God.

Exhale gratitude.

[Rev. David Gambrell, Associate for Worship, Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)]

Worship is at the very heart of the church’s life. All that the church is and does is rooted in its worship. The community of faith, gathered in response to God’s call, is formed in its worship. Worship is the principal influence that shapes our faith, and is the most visible way we express the faith. In worship, through Word and Sacrament, the church is sustained by the presence of Christ and empowered by the work of the Holy Spirit. Joined in worship to the One who is the source of its life, the church is equipped to serve God in the world. -Preface to The Book of Common Worship, 2018

Speak to one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making music with your heart to the Lord,
constantly giving thanks for everything,
in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ,
to our God and Father.

Ephesians 5:19-20

OUTREACH SPOTLIGHT-

SECOND HARVEST FOOD BANK

September is Hunger Action Month – the Feeding America Network’s annual campaign to raise awareness of hunger in the United States and to take action to combat poverty, inequity, and injustice so hunger can end for good.

The Second Harvest Food Bank is asking for locals to help "Stock the Shelves" throughout September. According to the non-profit organization, the food bank distributes enough food for 250,000 meals every day and it’s not enough.

In honor of Hunger Action Month, Outreach is challenging our congregation to help fight hunger in our community. This month-long effort encourages OBPC to make a positive change in our community whether that’s by donating, advocating, volunteering or learning more about hunger.
